

ANNOUNCEMENT

It is with great grief that HEDNO shares the sad news of the death of a company employee who succumbed to his injuries yesterday, October 12, 2016, after a fight for life that lasted several days.

Our employee was severely injured by a building entrance falling off during metering works on September 27, 2016, on the island of Kythira.

On the same day, all competent Services and the HEDNO management took immediate action to ensure speedy transportation of the then injured employee by means of an air force C-130 craft in Athens, in the Intensive Care Unit of Attikon Hospital.

Both the HEDNO Management and staff would like to express their sincere sympathy to the family.
