- For the islands of Alonnisos, Evia, Zakynthos, Kea, Kerkyra, Kefallonia, Lefkada, Skiathos, Skopelos, the off-peak tariff will apply on the basis of 2 different time frames:

1.1. Continuous period (23:00–07:00): applies for 8 hours, for consumers who are already using this option and wish to keep it as is.

1.2. The 2-period, i.e., 2 hours in the afternoon (15:00-17:00) and 6 hours at night (02:00–08:00), i.e., a total of 8 hours. This will apply to the following consumer groups:

- Consumers who used the 02:00-08:00 and 15:00-17:00 option until 30.04.2018.
- New consumers/applicants of off-peak rates. Users of this category can use this option only.
- Consumers who use the continuous option but wish to move to the split-hour option (users of this category will not be able to return to the continuous option).

2. Residential consumers registered in the wider region of Thessaloniki will have 2 options:

2.1. Continuous period (23:00-07:00). Applies for consumers who are already using this option and do not wish to move to the other option.

2.2. Off-peak rates at split times, between 02:00–08:00 and 15:00–17:00 (8 hours each day). For consumers who used the 02:00-08:00 and 15:00-17:00 split option until 30.04.2018. Those who have opted for the 23:00–07:00 option are eligible to move to the split-time option (02:00–08:00 and 15:00–17:00), but they will not be entitled to move back to the continuous option.

3. For the wider regions of Heraklion, Rethymnon, Ierapetra, Agios Nikolaos, Siteia, Chania, Stalida (Heraklion) Moires (Heraklion), Praitoria (Heraklion), Vryses (Chania) and Agia (Chania) in Crete and the islands of Heraklia, Ios, Kalymnos, Koufonisia, Kos, Leipsoi, Leros, Lesvos, Limnos, Milos, Naxos, Nisyros, Paros, Rhodes, Samos, Santorini, Sikinos, Syros, Schoinousa, Tilos, Folegandros, Chalki, Chios, the following will apply:

3.1. Off-peak rates will apply at two different time options: the continuous option (23.00-07.00) and the split option (02.00-08.00 and 15.30-17.30).

3.2. For new residential consumers, the split-hour option shall apply for all applicants requesting off-peak rates.

Consumers who are currently using the continuous option can stay in this option. If they wish to move to the split-hour option, they can send their application to the competent HEDNO SA office, but they will not be entitled to move back to the continuous option.

3.3. The continuous option will no longer apply for new consumers- it will only apply for those who already use it. For geographical regions using a time switch, the only available off-rate period is the continuous option.

4. For residential consumers registered in all other regions of Greece, the available off-rate period is the continuous option (23:00-07:00), as currently applied.
