Miguel Antoñanzas

As a MAM Operating Partner, Miguel is a consultant to Macquarie and a Non-Executive Director at EDP Redes España, a large electricity network company in northwestern Spain, at Exolum, a leading international company in the transportation and storage of liquid products, that manage Europe's largest network of refined products, at Hydro Dolomiti Energia, a renewable energy producer with 22 hydro units in Italy and at Elenia, the second largest electricity distribution system operator in Finland.

Miguel has been the CEO of Viesgo Infraestructuras Energéticas, S.L until 2020. Viesgo was an integrated utility with a significant renewable energy portfolio. He has held executive positions in Europe and Latin America in the IBERDROLA, ENEL and E.ON energy Groups, having also had international assignments with the global engineering group Bechtel. He has been Chairman and/or member of the Board of Directors of listed and private companies in many countries in the telecoms, engineering, media, water, gas and electricity sectors. Miguel is a member of the Board of Trustees of the International University Menéndez Pelayo (UIMP) and the Reina Sofia School of Music. He is a Civil Engineer specialized in hydraulics and energy.